On Easter Day in the Morning

This is the perfect introduction for children to the events of the first Easter.

Mary has a friend called Jesus.
Everywhere Jesus goes, special things happen.
But one day soldiers march him away to die on a cross.
Mary is very sad until she meets Jesus on Easter Day in the morning.

Everywhere Jesus goes, there are smiling faces!
Peter and John, the fishermen, struggle to bring in their fishing nets.
'Look how many fish Jesus has helped us catch!'
They shout to each other.

A man who cannot walk rolls up his mat and steps out left-right, left-right, through the streets, and out of the town, telling everyone he meets, 'Jesus has made me well!'

That evening a kind man says,
'I will take Jesus down from the cross
I will bury Jesus in my cave.'
Mary and her friends follow him, slowly, sadly, down the hill, through a gate and into a lovely garden.

No Room For The Nativity 'Pixi'

It's nearly Christmas!

The children are performing a nativity play with sparkly wings and animal masks...

But what can they do when there is no room for the nativity play?

This is the story of the nativity in a context that will engage younger children.

At playgroup, the children were choosing costumes from the dressing-up basket.

'I've got a pair of angel wings!' cried Abigail.

'Look at me! I'm going to be Joseph!' said Freddie, walking with a big stick.

'And I'm going to be Mary in this blue head scarf,' said Jenny. 'Look at us!' cried the twins. 'We can be the donkey!' Barney looked in the basket, but he couldn't find any more animal costumes. 'Never mind, Barney,' said Miss Bright. 'Perhaps you could be the innkeeper? That's a very important part...'

Back at the farm, Barney helped Dad to feed the sheep.

'Wait! I've had an idea!' said Barney. 'We could do our play in this barn. Could we, Dad?'

'Ah, I'm not too sure...'

'But Miss Bright says Christmas is all about being kind to others! Oh, please say 'yes', Dad!'

'Well, I suppose... Yes, of course you can!' said Dad smiling. 'As long as no one minds the animals!'
